

Soft.Extend

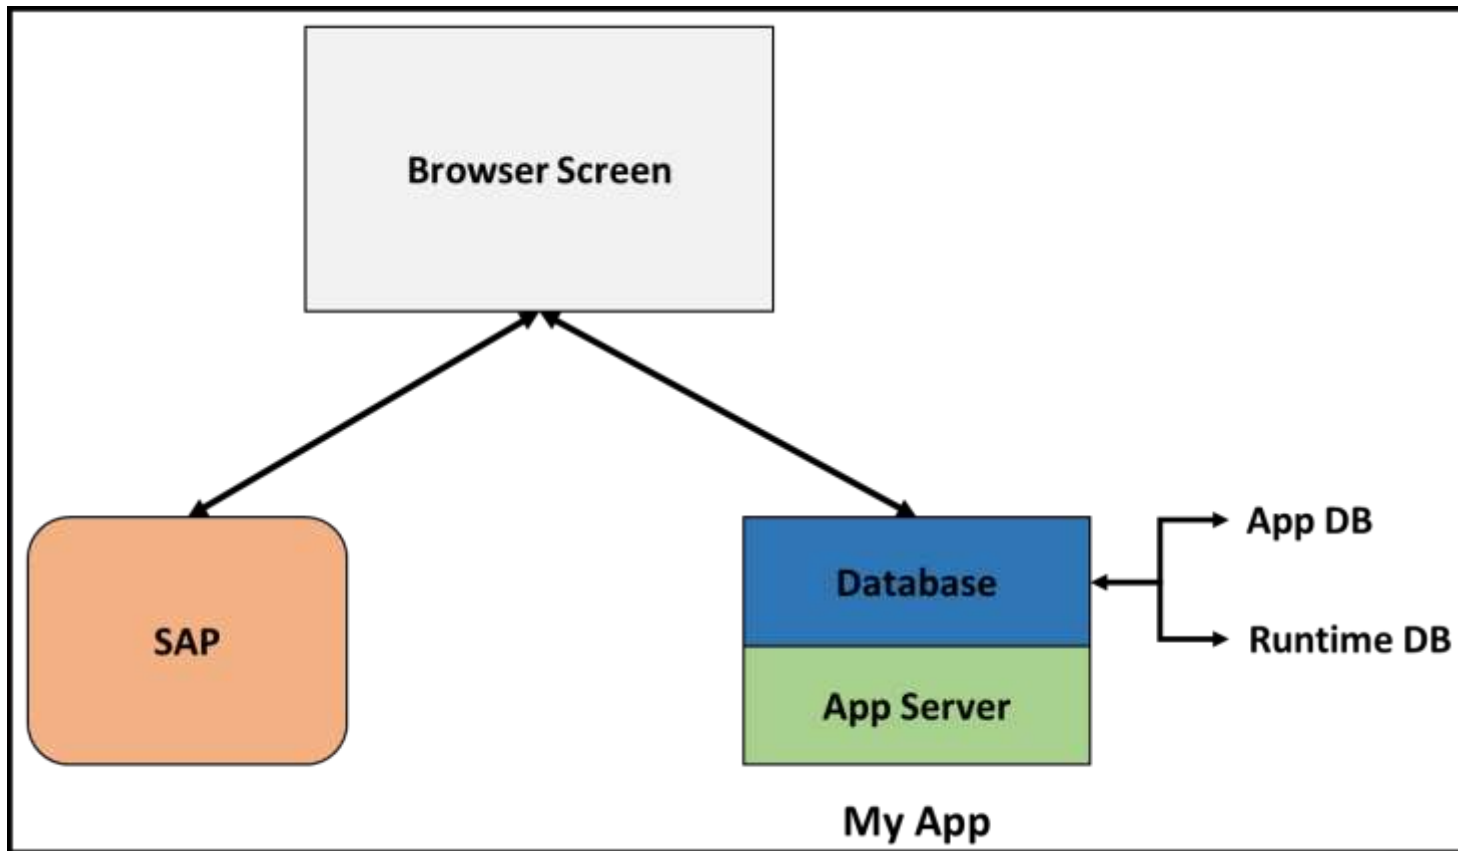

Extender

Soft.Extend

- Extends functionalities of browser based applications
- Integrated UI provides a single application view
- Ability to add validations and/or additional data capture fields
- Applications from a different application server can be used to extend base application
- Extended functionality can be triggered based on an event or key combination
- Can be used across all industry verticals

Soft.Extend

Architecture

Soft.Extend

Benefits

- Seamless integration with niche applications
- Covers processes not available through ready products
- Extends application easily
- Source code of original application not required